In the early part of the session there were signs of pressure upon such leaders as United States Steel, Amalgamated Copper and American Smelting. Union Pacific also suffered under short selling, and an abrupt decline in the tangle in that road's reorganization plan. The few pronounced gains of the day were limited to some of the high price specialities, such as Woolworth, Sears, Roebuck and National Biscuit.

Monetary conditions were unchanged. Call leans did not get beyond 6 per cent. The bond market was devoid of especial features.
